Message from The EUSA President

Dear Friends,

My warmest welcome to all participants of the European Universities Championships 2023.

The European Universities Championships, as previous editions have proved, are a wonderful occasion to be together and experience the beauty of university sport. I am pleased that a great number of students and officials, sharing their love for sport, respecting Fair Play, competing in truly university sport spirit will meet in many cities across the Europe.

During such events we do more than just sport – we broaden our horizons, get to know other cultures, we promote a healthy society, we stand on the side of peace, respecting and celebrating diversity.

Being the Organizer of the Championship is challenging but at the end rewarding as well. I want to express my appreciation to the Organizing Committees, its Partners and the volunteers who give their crucial contribution to the success of the event. My gratitude extends to the National, Regional and Local Authorities for their auspices of this event.

I believe that the European Universities Championships will bring the participants unforgettable experiences and lots of personal achievements. This principle further states that this requires a behaviour based on “mutual understanding with a spirit of friendship, solidarity and fair play”. EUSA considers sports as an active tool in the education of university students, and aims at encouraging and supporting “the promotion of ethics, Fair Play, gender equity and good governance in sport” (EUSA Statutes). With the EUSA Incident Policy, EUSA clarifies the expectations, and consequences, regarding the behaviour of different stakeholders at EUSA’s events to allow the creation of a safe and enjoyable environment.

GENERAL INFORMATION

About Hungary

Hungary is located in the heart of Europe, in the basin of the Carpathian Mountains. With a population of nearly ten million, it counts as a medium-sized Member State of the European Union. Its capital is Budapest, which is the country's largest city and also its most visited tourist destination.

The country is a member of NATO, OECD and the United Nations, a part of the Schengen area, which allows citizens to travel between countries in the Schengen area without controls.

Hungary is a country rich in natural treasures. One of the world's largest thermal water reserves, the largest thermal lake (Lake Hévíz), the largest body of water in Central Europe (Lake Balaton), as well as the largest grassy steppes of Central Europe (Hortobágy) are all located here. The two major rivers crossing the country, the Danube and the Tisza, play determining roles in the hydrography of Hungary. The highest point of Hungary, Mount Kékes (1,014 m), a place of therapeutic climate and a popular tourist destination, can be found in the Mátra Mountains in north-eastern Hungary.

The area of the country is 93,025 sq.km, with forests covering twenty percent. Hungary's wildlife is one of the richest in Europe. The natural treasures are preserved in 10 national parks, 39 protected landscapes, 174 nature preservation areas and 103 natural monuments.

Hungary is the 11th most popular tourist destination in Europe. Particularly popular areas within the country include Budapest, Lake Balaton and the Danube Bend, but the Tokaj wine region, the Mátra and Bükk Mountains, Debrecen and Hortobágy, as well as Sopron and the Fertő Lake area are also popular.

The country hosts numerous art and music festivals, touristic and sporting events each year. Some examples include "Sziget" (Island of Freedom) Festival in Budapest, the

DEBRECEN 2023

EUROPEAN UNIVERSITIES 3X3 BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Flower Carnival in Debrecen, as well as the CineFest International Film Festival in Miskolc.

Throughout history, Hungary has always made significant contributions to the global treasures of culture, in the areas of arts, music, literature, sports and sciences. There is a multitude of natural landscapes of exceptional beauty, historic fortifications, and protected monuments of diverse architectural styles in the country.

Hungarian folk music is famous around the world, and has inspired major composers such as Johannes Brahms, Franz Liszt, Béla Bartók and Zoltán Kodály.

Gastronomy is a noteworthy part of Hungarian culture, which is shown, in addition to the popularity of national dishes, by the wide range of gastronomy festivals. Thanks to the unmatched diversity of Hungarian wine regions, such Hungarian wines have become world famous as the “Tokay aszú”, the “bikavér” (bull’s blood) of Eger, or the “szürkebarát” (grey monk) of Badacsony.

About Debrecen

Debrecen has a population over 200 thousand, and the city is the spectacularly developing centre of Eastern Hungary.

The name of the town is first mentioned in written records in the 13th century. It was given the rank of town more than 650 years ago, in 1361.

Debrecen was famous across Europe for its fairs and schools. It is located at the cross-roads of major routes of transportation across the Carpathian Basin. Fitting to its role as a regional centre, it has excellent accessibility. From Budapest, it can be most easily reached via the motorway system. Railway and bus services connect the city with other regions in every direction.

Debrecen Airport is the only permanently open international airport in Hungary outside of Budapest. It is connected to all major hubs of the continent with scheduled flights. The historic centre of Debrecen offers a fascinating number of attractions and sights of cultural significance. From the towers of the Great Reformed Church, one can enjoy a wonderful panorama of the city, while the top of the water tower opens up vistas onto the extensive Great Forest. Additional cultural attractions include the Truncated [Small] Church, the 150-year-old Csokonai Theatre, and St. Anna Cathedral. In the library and museum of the Reformed College, founded in 1538, some artefacts unique even around the world are on display: nearly 17 thousand objects are held here, including a collection of applied arts showcasing the treasures of Hungarian silversmiths' works and embroidery culture.

Debrecen is a vibrant and modern city, where one can never be bored. A range of cafés, ambient patios and dance clubs offer the chance of a pleasant evening out. From early spring into late autumn, one music festival is followed by the next.

The services of Aquaticum Spa and Adventure Water Park, based on the thermal water, offer relaxation and thrills alike. Additional venues promising a pleasant time are the Great Forest area with its outdoor theatre, the Mist Theatre fountain, and the “Békás” [Froggy] Pond. It is this area also where Campus Festival, attracting approximately 100 thousand visitors each year, as well as the multiday events of the Wine Carnival and the Jazz Festival, also with crowds in the thousands, are held. Hungary’s largest student club, called Hall, was recently opened within the building of “Nagyerdei” Stadium, which is the venue for spectacular, exciting concerts.
